

The brothers John and Henry Nuttman and their brides leaving church after their double wedding June 3, 1913.

Anton Hendricks donated the ground for the Holy Cross church. The Jesuits called the mission at Keuterville "St. Peter's" but when the bishop came to bless the church, he called it "Sacred Heart Church." When the church was built in 1911 and dedicated, the bishop said "I have too many Sacred Heart churches in my diocese, I will call this one Holy Cross Church".

The second church, which was built in 1897, and ran from east to west, was destroyed by fire May 3, 1911. ▶

Keuterville looking south towards Moughmer Point; in foreground George Schmidt on his horse. ▲

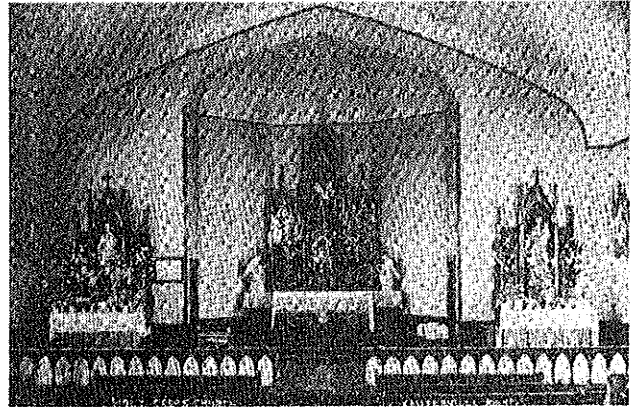

Leo Nuttman is all ready to go out to build fence above the Salmon River.

W

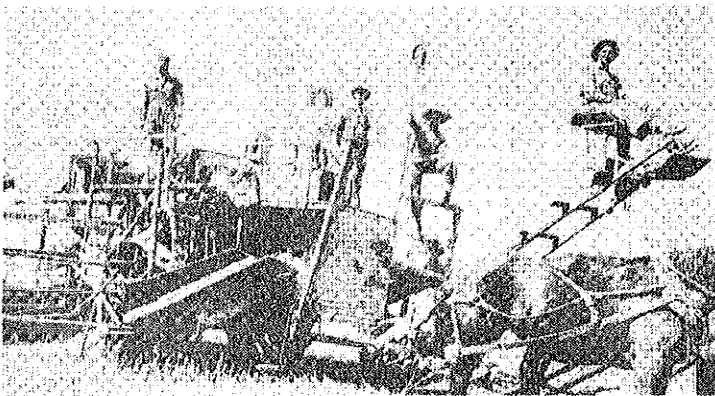

The inside of the Keuterville church, which burned down May 3, 1911.

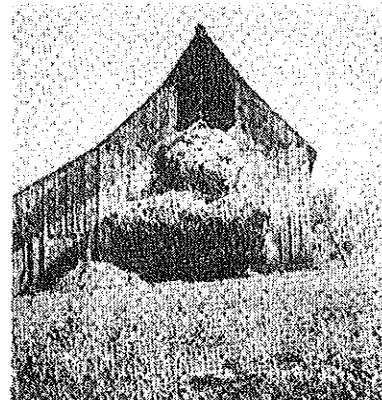

This picture was taken when Mrs. John Uhlenkott and Mrs. Lawrence Sprute cared for the altars and floors.

Fred Romain threshing machine and crew; Fred Romain fourth man from left.

L to R: Goffe Eckert, young couple, Bill Enneking sews sacks, Paul Bogley driving horses.

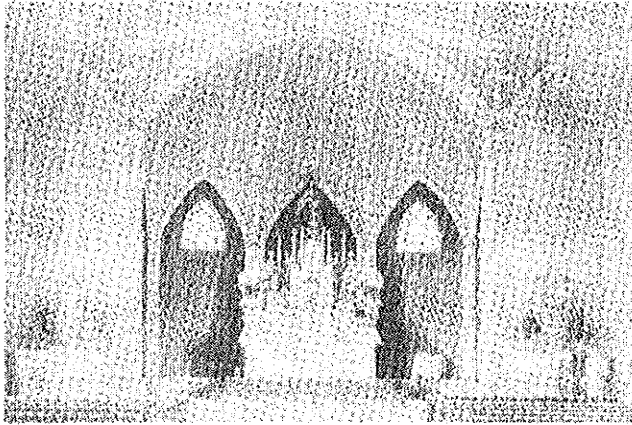

A Jackson Fork moves loose hay into the Kowaleski barn.

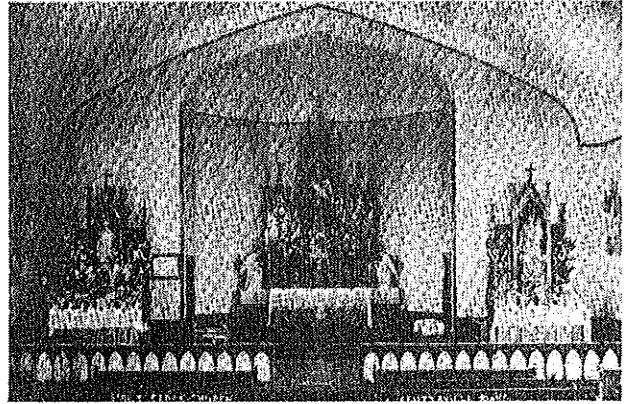

John Uhlenkott's threshing machine, thrashing for John Uptmor.

W

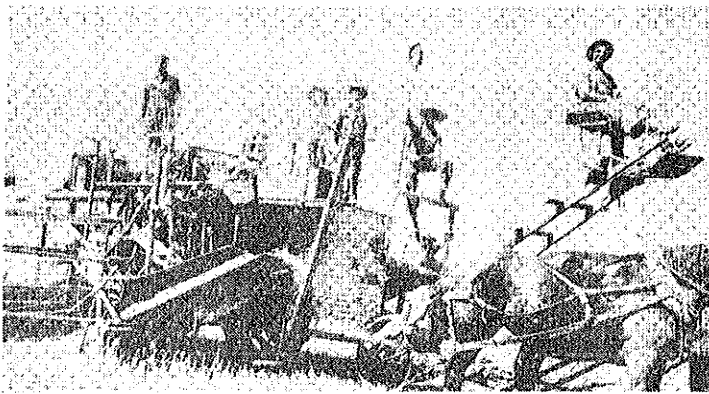

The inside of the Keuterville church, which burned down May 3, 1911.

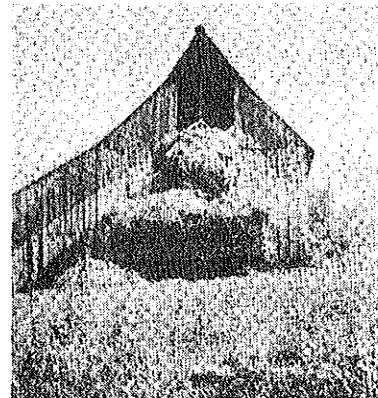

This picture was taken when Mrs. John Uhlenkott and Mrs. Lawrence Sprute cared for the altars and floors.

Fred Romain threshing machine and crew; Fred Romain fourth man from left.

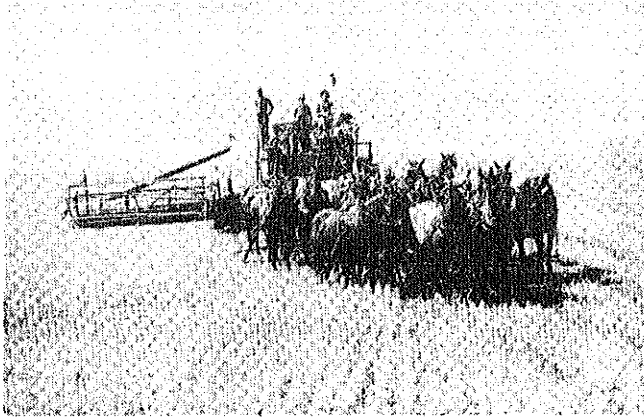

◀ L to R: Goffe Eckert, young couple, Bill Erneking sews sacks, Paul Bogley driving horses.

A Jackson Fork moves loose hay into the Kowaleski barn.

◀ John Uhlenkott's threshing machine, thrashing for John Uptmor.

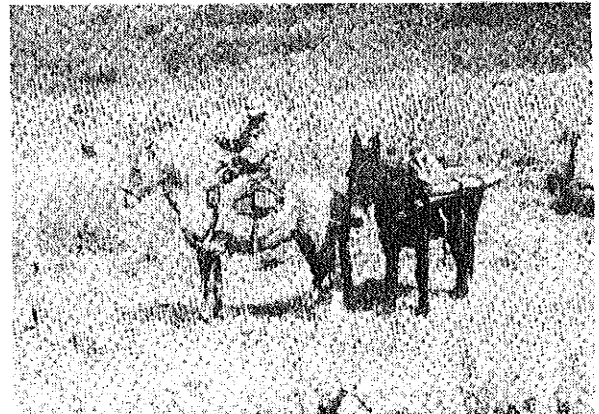

◀ Front view, Bill Enneking 2nd man from left, 20 horses were used to pull the Eckert combine.

Hereford cattle grazing

August Schroeders cattle, which were the first registered purebred Hereford herd in Idaho. Left to right: Rudolph, Father - August, August, Ned, Bert. The picture was taken in 1906. The bull came from the E.P. Ranch in Alberta, Canada, once owned by Edward the 7th, before he was king.

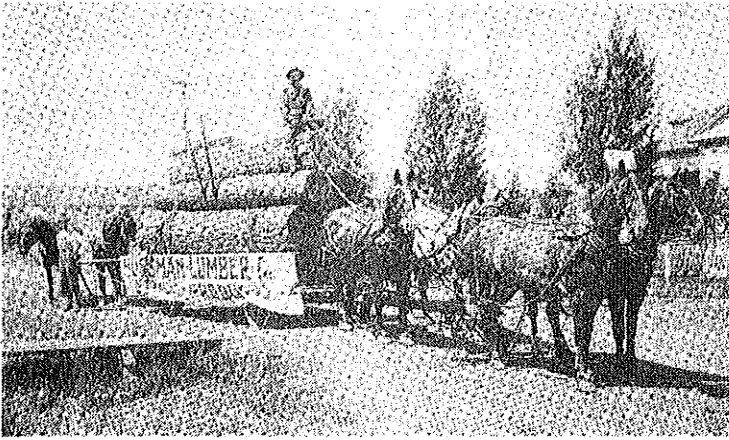

Albert Enneking ready to go out to repair fence.

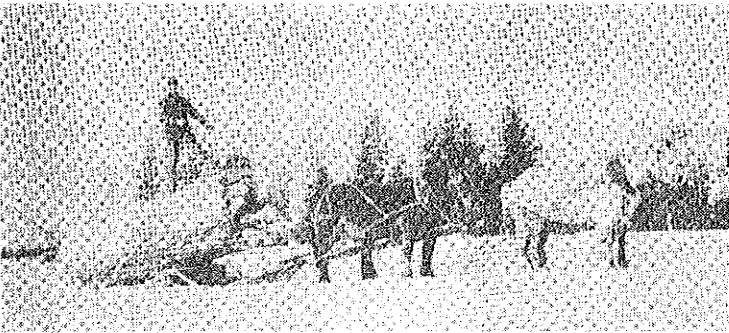

L to R: Tom Nuttman riding the hinny Ugly, Leo Nuttman riding the hinny Sandy.

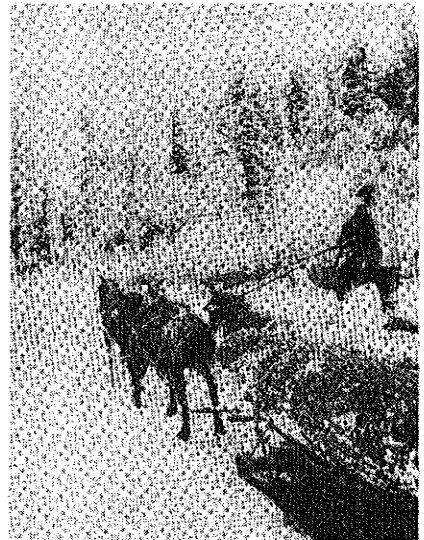

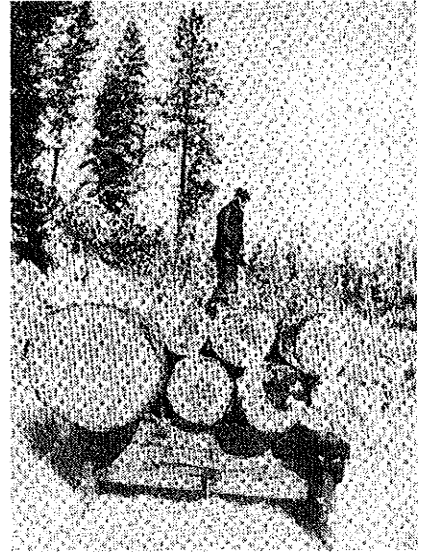

Ben Hussman and Henry Boeckman hauling lumber. The store in the background is where Martha Hussman clerked.

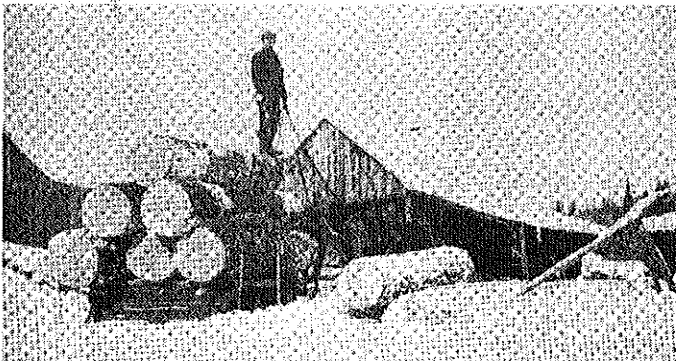

◀ Ben Hussman on ground, Henry Boeckman on load of logs at parade.

Leo Simon brings a log to the Hussman sawmill, 1925.

Bill Enneking moves logs by sled.

Above: Load of yellow pine logs on sled, 1920. Below: rear view of same load of logs, horses still hitched up.