WHAT IS IT?

Hi Kids!

You're probably wondering what this "Bulldog Special" is supposed to be, so here's the dope.

Do you remember that last year in the Informer, we used to run special columns, jokes, etc? Well, The Informer is supposed to be a newspaper, and this can't be classified as news, so we've gathered all that we would have ordinarily put in the Informer and put it in "book" form. Result: The "Bulldog Special"

WHAT'S NEW

Corduroy and leopard skin shirts top the list of boy's fads.

Doug Woodall has been sporting a snazzy brown and tan plaid shirt.

Tommy Eimers has a tan cardigan which rates high in eye-appeal.

Flora Jane Heter's leopard skin weskit is really eye-catching.

By the way, have you noticed the flying airplanes in Room 30? This is a 'fad' of Mr. Williams and his Aeronautics class.

Hot Lips?? Oh, yes, that's the new high school dance band. Members??? Jerry Martin, Vernon Holbrook, Doug Woodall, Louie Asker and Mr. Johnston.

REMEMBER WHEN

The big 5, Nancy McDonald
Martha Stearns, Barbara Hibler, Gail Dennis and Carole Campbell ran the Freshman class?

The seniors gave a dance(?)
and a play called the "Obstructive-Hat" for their initiation?

The good old days when the electricity would go off and they would close school for the day?

Each club or class got two days to prepare a "Slop-show" to be given for the students wanting to get out of school badly enough to pay a dime? This money was used to help pay for the grand piano in the auditorium.

All the fun (?) the freshmen classes had collecting junk for the pep-rallies and bonfires?

The snake got loose in Mr.
Caine's Biology class?

All the girls wore bells either in their hair or on their shoes to warn everyone that Christmas was coming?

Short hair, long skirts and loud shirts, socks, and sweaters were all the rage?

Our team dressed up to travel
to neighboring towns for ball games?

Home Ec. and Shop classes switched for six weeks? (What a time!)

The zippers on boy's shirts
went every which way?

Leopard--skin shirts were
all the fad?

Martha Stearns won the pie-eating contest at the end-of-school picnic?

THANK YOU, SOLDIER

If you're going to Korea,
Do one favor, please for me;
When you reach that Hermit Kingdom
Close beside the Yellow Sea;
As you walk among our soldiers,
Any place you chance to go,
Leave this message as a landmark,
"Jeanie sends her thanks to Joe.
Thank you, soldier, for your giving
Thank you, soldier, for the way
That you placed the price of freedom
'Bove your dreams of yesterday.
Thank you, soldier, for your courage
Though outnumbered by the foe:
From her heart, her flag, her country,
Jeanie sends her thanks to Joe."

"A GOOD PLACE TO GO"

JUST A LETTER!

Dear Ermintrude:

I NEW it had been a LONG time since I had written to you and my conscience was bothering me, so today I decided it was time to drop you a line.

My experiences this last week have been hectic. As you know, we live a LONG ways from LATHANville out on the twin RHOADES, WEST of town. As we were coming home from town last Monday the KARR stalled in the MIDDLESTEAD of the side of the highway. JAMES jumped right out and started investigating. After checking it thoroughly, he found a couple of SMALL HOLES in the radiator. We pushed it to a near-by garage, and it took all the CASH he had left to fix it.

When we reached the house there was MOORE trouble. The dog had scattered WOODALL over the lawn.

While I was putting away the groceries, I found RICE all over the cupboard, the mice must have been here while we were away. I was sure to put the GRAHAM crackers where they couldn't get into them.

Then JAMES came in and said some baby chicks had HATCHED while we were gone and had to be taken care of WRICHT away.

By bedtime that night I thought I would DYE, but the next day was much MOORE interesting.

Mrs. Gabbington came over and told me all the NEW gossip. She said she had to CRANE her neck to watch the YOUNG couple next door. They're getting along alright, except that the other day, the girl broke a couple of BOWLES over her husband's head. I ASKER how the old maid, who lives down the street, and her boyfriend were getting along. We wondered "WILLEY ever marry her?"

She said that the BAKER down town needs some LUCKER something to help him improve his pastries. They are so HARDIN, it almost breaks your teeth to eat them.

Well, I'd better quit now. Come SEAY me sometime, and WRIGHT soon.

LOVE,

Gertrude
